F * * K Bush

By Brian Wolf

Irritating isn't it? In a land of free speech we have to censor ourselves. In a country where the Vice President feels it's perfectly alright to go into the US Senate and tell a ranking US Senator to fuck himself. So the bar has been set hasn't it? Keeping that in mind.

Fuck Bush

You heard me, fuck Bush.

Isn't free speech great? In some Countries talking about the leadership that way would get you executed. That is why I'm throwing my support behind the editor of Colorado State Universities Student Newspaper whose job is on the line for allowing those exact sentiments to be printed.

While Bushco has done it's level best to assure otherwise, we still have a Constitution with a gaurantee of free speech.

Why does everyone tip toe around The Deciderer? FUCK HIM!! He has done nothing but empty our treasury into his cronies pockets while trying to strip the Constitution of it's most basic protections. And nobody calls him on it. Where is the 4th Estate, the media? The Democrats? It's pathetic.

And speaking of free speech, let's discuss Moveon.org and General Betray Us.

The hypocrisy from the right on this issue is astounding. They whine and cry about a 1 day newspaper ad and pass a resolution denouncing it. But let us remember that these are the very Republicans who took out television ads attacking Max Cleeland, who lost half his body in Vietnam, and questioned his service record. The very same people who smeared John Kerry with the Swiftboat bullshit, who accused John McCain of having an out of wedlock black baby, who, while attacking and impeaching Bill Clinton for lying about a blowjob, were sleeping with under age pages, trolling public bathrooms for gay sex, paying gay male prostitutes for sex and meth, divorcing their wives while they lay in a hospital dying from breast cancer, having an extramarital affair and then trying to move their mistresses into the Mayor's mansion with their wife and daughter, the list goes on.

Fuck them All.
