A Rush to Threaten

By Brian Wolf

Rush Limbaugh and Bill O'Reilly are apparently birds of feather. When someone writes or says something about them they don't like, they both resort to vaguely veiled threats.

First Bill was going to show up at everyone's house and shove a microphone up our noses. Now this has been released, Rush bragging about going after children of his critics:

Limbaugh Brags About Threatening Children of Journalist Writing Unflattering Story About Him:

Limbaugh continued: "[W]e found out who was writing it and made a couple phone calls to the person writing it. And we said, 'You know what? We're going to find out where your kids go to school. We're going to find out who you knocked up in high school. We're going to find out what drugs you used. We're going to find out where you go to drink and do -- we're gonna find out how you paid for your house. We're going to do -- and we're going to do exact -- and we're going to say that, you know what? You are no different than Al Goldstein. You both masturbate.'

Nice isn't it? Sums up the intelligence, morality, and values of the tighty righties quite nicely. Don't agree with them? They're going to not only hunt you down, but your children as well. They will harass, and stalk, and terrify children, just because they are too gutless to try it with an adult. And of course, at the end, they resort to the crudest of childhood taunts.

Malkin, Limbaugh, Coulter, O'Reilly, all cut from the same bolt of weevil infected cloth. There is something fundamentally wrong with them. With the way they think and perceive and react to the world around them. They all act like spoiled children who, for the first time in their lives, are being held accountable. They stamp their feet, throw a tantrum and resort to profanity and the behavior of a schoolyard bully. These are the spokespersons of the right.

So Rush, let me tell you something. When you're a known celebrity, there is a lot of information on you out there, so I'm going to tell you what I'm going to do. I'm going to find out where people you care about go to school, or work, or to eat. I'm going to find out what you did in high school, what drugs you took, how often you got beat up, judging from your adult behavior, I'm guessing on a daily basis, and how you paid for your house, and your illegal painkillers and your illegal immigrant housekeepers, and then I'm going find out what you do with all that Viagra in the Dominican Republic. Then I will tell everyone, via articles and my radio show, just what kind of "human being" you actually are.

And you know what Rush? There's not a damn thing you can do to stop me. Not one damn thing. Chew on that.
